

went home the next day, Friday. Thursday was the 14th and I went home the next day, Friday morning. The next week I was down here on my vacation the entire week.

Q Beginning with what date? A. That would be the Monday, <sup>following,</sup> whatever date that was. Thursday was the 14th, Friday the 15th, Saturday the 16th, Sunday the 17th. I came after Saturday, but I was down here the whole week following. Some time around Monday I heard people talking about the affair and Henry's name was mentioned, among others, and a number of people said--we made different remarks. I said, "Why, I saw him on the beach that night. That was the night I was down." If I had been down the entire week there might have been a little doubt, but the fact that I came down <sup>just</sup> the one night and it was the only night during the week, it was easy to trace back and see I was there.

Q Then the fact that recalls it to you strongly is that it was the only night that particular week with the exception of Saturday, the 16th, that you were in Lavallette?

A Yes.

Q And that you had been in the habit theretofore of coming down-- A. Saturday afternoon.

Q Saturday afternoon? A. Yes.

Q And about how many days after September 14, 1922 did you
